ASC Webmaster Report 07/16/2023

Good morning family,

Last month I attempted updates on the website since I noticed that several updates were prompted by the website to be completed. However, when I selected the updates, and it finished running its course, the website ultimately shut down.

Fortunately, Justin was able to restore it to mostly its original functionality. There are a few minor restorations that still need to be implemented. My apologies for any inconvenience, hopefully soon we can restore everything back to its original function.

ILS,

Missy L.
